

Steven Brault Records Broadway Musical Album, “A Pitch At Broadway”

Steven Brault, client of The Warner Companies, has recorded a 12-song musical album, titled “A Pitch At Broadway,” featuring famous Broadway musicals. The Pittsburgh Pirates’ starting pitcher’s album will be released on April 3, 2020.

Brault performs lead vocals on all 12 songs from some of the most well-known musicals of all-time on the album, including “Hamilton,” “Wicked,” and “Dear Evan Hansen.” He has showcased his singing and musical talents for the Pirates in the past, having sung the National Anthem prior to two (2) Pirates games in the last two (2) seasons. Brault majored in music performance with a vocal performance emphasis while attending Regis University. He is also set to debut as a special guest with the Pittsburgh Symphony starting on Friday, February 7, 2020.

The album features top session musicians including Vinnie Colaiuta and Kenny Aronoff on drums, Leland Sklar on bass, Tim Pierce on guitar, and Jeff Babko on keyboards. Fellow Pirates player Josh Bell is also a special guest on “A Pitch At Broadway.” The album was produced by Latin GRAMMY-nominated producer Loren Harriet, who also produced former New York Yankees outfielder Bernie Williams’ two (2) albums, as well as the NBA Celebrity Christmas CD.

On the baseball diamond, Brault enters the 2020 season in his fifth year as a Pirates pitcher, having come off his most successful Major League season where he held a 4.60 earned run average in 2019.

Pre-order purchases for Brault’s “A Pitch At Broadway” album will be available starting on Saturday, February 22, 2020 at: www.stevenbraultalbum.com. The full album will be released and available for purchase on Friday, April 3, 2020.
